

Harry Hegdehog's morning

Harry wakes up – it is already autumn time

Harry is hungry, where to get food?

He goes to the garden and tries to find food

He notices an apple tree

But how to get an apple from the tree?

Harry asks his friends, first the cow

Cow says that she can shake the tree so that apples fall down...

But Harry does not want that many apples fall down

Harry asks help from the beaver

Beaver says that he can gnaw the tree so that it falls....

But Harry does not want to fall the tree

Harry asks help from the snail

Snail says that he can climp up and loosen an apple

But Harry thinks that snail is too slow and has not time to wait hours to get food...

Harry asks help from the bird

Bird says that there other apple trees on the other side of the garden and some apples have fallen down...

Harry has to try that! He starts walking and searching!

Searching

Finding!

Harry hurried over to the juicy red apple.
He took a little nibble. Crunch! It was sweet. He took another nibble. Munch! It was tasty. He nibbled and munched until his tummy felt full and happy

Eating apples make Harry tired, almost sleepy..

Soon, Harry the Hedgehog was fast asleep, dreaming sweet apple dreams in the warm morning sun.
What a happy morning!

The end!
